Note for teacher and parents

Objectives:

To secure four Arabic words.

To recognise the Arabic words out of sequence.

To pronounce Arabic sounds correctly.

Outcome:

The child can recall the Arabic words, when the appropriate picture is shown.

The child is able to pronounce sounds correctly.

The child is able to recognise Arabic words in and out of sequence.

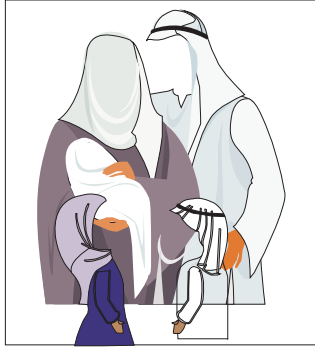

Activity 1

Cut out the pictures and turn them over, so the picture is facing down.

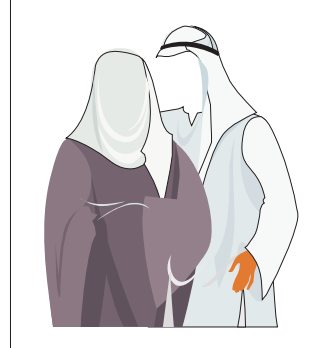

The teacher/parent should point to a picture, and the children should shout out the name of that picture.

You should then turn over the picture to see if they were correct.

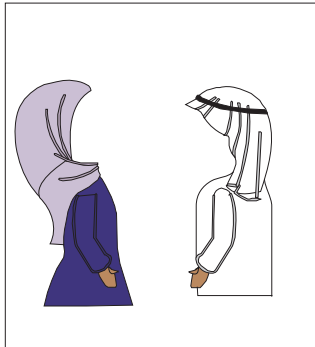

(Please explain to the children that it is forbidden to draw heads).

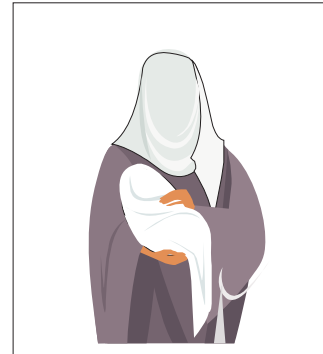

أَسْرَتِي

الْأَبُ وَالْأُمُّ

إِبْرَاهِيمُ وَ زَيْنَبُ

الْأُمُّ وَ طَلْحَةَ

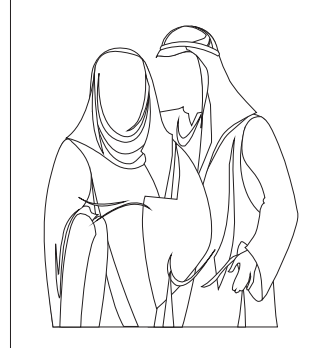

Activity 2

After your children have coloured all the pictures, you may wish to use them as a wall chart.

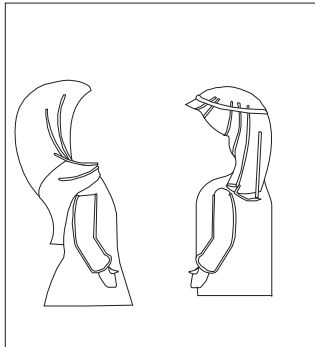

أُسْرَتِي

ACTIVITY 3

Teaching morals.

Explain to the children how Allaah wants us to worship Him alone and be good to our parents.

Worship to Allaah and be good to your parents!

Allaah said in the Qur'aan:

(وَأَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَلَا تُشْرِكُوا بِهِ شَيْئًا وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا)

"Meaning: Worship Allaah and join none with Him in worship, and do good to parents,..." (Soorah 4: Aayah 36)

Allaah orders us to worship Him alone and not to worship anything else. We must NOT worship the sun, moon, trees, angels, prophets, graves or stones.

Allaah orders us to be good to our parents. We must be kind and gentle towards our parents. We must talk to them using nice words and never use bad words towards them.

In the Qur'aan (Soorah 31:14), Allaah orders us to give thanks to Him and our parents. Allaah created us, provides food for us, protects from bad things. Our mothers bore us in weakness and hardship. Our parents cook our food, wash our clothes and teach us Islaam.

To be a good Muslim we must listen to what Allaah tells us to do and we must also listen to what our parents tell us to do.
