

The rule of eating raw liver

Question: what is the rule of eating raw liver, and uncooked meat, is it permissible or not?

Shaykh Bin Baz [rahimahullah] said: there is no impermissible in it so far, but better if you cook it, meat has to be well-done to make it beneficial to eat it, and safe from any harm.

On the other hand, I don't know who is eating from what Allah permitted from the liver or other raw meat " that Halal"don't know any type of blame about it.
